

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome with pleasure the opportunity to recognize a remarkable young Missouri citizen whose efforts and accomplishments have made her a source of inspiration to all those around her; and

Whereas, , Catherine Moore, a resident of Kirkwood, Missouri, has been chosen as a recipient of the 2007 Letters About Literature award, a most impressive accolade to be bestowed upon her by the Missouri Center for the Book on April 10, 2007, at the James C. Kirkpatrick State Information Center in Jefferson City; and

Whereas, Letters About Literature is a national reading-writing contest sponsored by the Missouri Center for the Book, the Missouri State Library, the Library of Congress, and Target Stores; and

Whereas, readers in grades four through twelve write a personal letter to an author, living or dead, from any genre -- fiction or nonfiction, contemporary or classic, explaining how that author's work changed the student's way of thinking about the world or themselves; and

Whereas, there are three competition levels: Level I for children in grades four through six, Level II for grades seven through eight, and Level III for grades nine through twelve; and

Whereas, Catherine Moore, an eighth grade student at North Kirkwood Middle School, won First Place in Level II for her essay; and

Whereas, , Catherine Moore has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her parents, Frank and Nancy Moore:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Catherine Moore for her selection to receive the 2007 Letters About Literature award and in further wishing her continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Catherine Moore.
